

HPCC 25th Anniversary Conference 13-14 Oct 2007

Please complete the following registration form. (While the conference is free, we do need to know who will be coming so that we may inform Imperial College security; ensure that we have a large enough room etc.)

We hope that HP will offer us a presentation on their latest calculators and we look forward to offers of other talks. Please feel free to bring a guest and we hope that you enjoy yourselves.
